

InterKnit
Machine Knitters
Guild
November 2010
Newsletter

November 13th Meeting: Spinning! Back by popular demand, Rebecca will demo the home production of yarn, from the fleece to the skein, and beyond. There will be lots of hands on opportunities to fondle fibers from various breeds of sheep and other fiber animals, and cotton and other plant fibers. There will be both drum carder and spinning wheel demonstrations, using wool. This will be in Room 161 of Building K at the College of DuPage at 10 am. Officers are asked to meet in the Common's area at 9:15. Anyone thinking of volunteering for a post is welcome.

Knittin To It Reminder. Sunday, November 14th. Carolyn Barnett from Canada will be our demonstrator. We will meet as usual at the Burr Ridge Park District Community Center at 10AM and end at 4PM. Please bring your own lunch and a treat to share if you wish. Carolyn is a very talented designer and we are very excited to have her visit us!!!

End of the year is near that means:

1. Yearly Club Dues (payable to InterKnit to be turned in to Diane McQueen)
2. Charity Knit is NEXT month.

Also, Please make note Judith Rich has a new email address:
Judithrich@att.net